

Analyze Shared Powers: Apply and Create

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Use what you learned to explain, construct or apply an idea.

1. Does a veto always end the bill permanently?

Look for:

- Uses the condition.

One possible response: No. Congress may override it with the required vote.

2. What would you need before explaining every step of federal lawmaking?

Look for:

- Does not treat this short example as the full process.

One possible response: A fuller description of procedures and constitutional requirements.

Open responses use criteria and an illustrative response. Other well-supported responses can be acceptable.
