

Respond to a Shared Problem: Review Connections

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Use what you learned to explain, construct or apply an idea.

1. Describe the problem without blaming either person.

Look for:

- Names the conflict without an insult.

One possible response: A member's writing was erased without discussion because of readability concerns.

2. Give one possible concern for each person.

Look for:

- Uses both perspectives.

One possible response: The writer may want their effort respected; the other may want readable text.

3. Suggest a respectful next step.

Look for:

- Addresses respect and readability.

One possible response: Discuss the important message and agree on larger, shorter text.

4. Write a sentence one member could use.

Look for:

- States a need and invites discussion.

One possible response: I want to keep the main idea. Could we shorten it together?

Open responses use criteria and an illustrative response. Other well-supported responses can be acceptable.
