

Empathy in Action: Making Kind & Thoughtful Choices

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Read each social scenario and choose the most empathetic and supportive action.

1. At recess, you notice a new student sitting alone by the bench watching others play soccer. What is the most empathetic choice?

Answer: B. Walk over with a friendly smile and invite them: 'Hi! Do you want to play on our team?'

Inviting someone who feels left out shows active empathy and inclusive friendship.

2. Your friend dropped their lunch tray in the crowded cafeteria and looks embarrassed. What should you do?

Answer: B. Quickly walk over, help them pick up their tray, and say: 'Don't worry, accidents happen to everyone!'

Stepping in immediately to help without judgment protects your friend's dignity and diffuses embarrassment.
