

Analyze Change in an Industrial Model: Apply and Create

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Use what you learned to explain, construct or apply an idea.

1. What real historical evidence would be needed to study workers' lives?

Look for:

- Looks beyond production totals.

One possible response: Wages, working hours, safety records and worker accounts.

2. Why should the model not stand in for all industrialization?

Look for:

- Acknowledges simplification.

One possible response: It omits many different industries, periods and social effects.

Open responses use criteria and an illustrative response. Other well-supported responses can be acceptable.
