

Relationship Skills: Making Friends & Sharing Toys

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Look at each playground scenario and pick the kindest friend choice.

1. You see a classmate sitting alone on the bench during recess looking sad. What is the kindest thing to do?

Answer: A. Walk up, smile, and say: 'Hi, would you like to play hopscotch with me?'

Inviting someone to play is inclusive, kind, and helps make new friends feel welcome.

2. You are coloring with the only red crayon, and your friend needs it for their drawing. What should you do?

Answer: B. Finish your apple quickly, then smile and hand the red crayon to your friend.

Sharing turns with classroom materials shows cooperation and generosity.
