

Rhetorical Appeals in an Argument: Apply and Create

Name: _____ Date: _____

Use what you learned to explain, construct or apply an idea.

An invented proposal

Invented practice data or scenario; not a report of a real study.
Our school should extend library hours. A librarian who has worked here for ten years says the current schedule is too short for many students. Last week, an invented sign-in count showed 40 students arrived near closing. Imagine losing the chance to finish a project because the doors shut just as you arrive.

1. What information is missing before judging the proposal?

2. Does naming the appeal prove the proposal is good? Explain.
