

Summarize and Attribute Ideas

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Use the material to work through each task. Show the requested response.

1. What is the note mainly about?

Answer: considering repair while recognizing safety limits

2. Which objects may need replacement?

Answer: unsafe or badly damaged objects

3. Paraphrase the first idea without copying the whole sentence.

Look for:

- Preserves the qualified meaning.

One possible response: Repairing some items can help avoid unnecessary waste.

4. Write a sentence beginning The note explains that.

Look for:

- Attributes the idea to the note.

One possible response: The note explains that safety can make replacement necessary.

5. Add a clearly labeled personal opinion.

Look for:

- Separates opinion from the source statement.

One possible response: I think learning simple repair skills would be useful.

6. Write a concise summary with both benefit and limitation.

Look for:

- Includes both sides accurately.

One possible response: The note supports suitable repairs to reduce waste but recognizes cases where replacement is safer.

Open responses use criteria and an illustrative response. Other well-supported responses can be acceptable.