

Main Ideas and Supporting Details: Explore and Explain

Name: _____ Date: _____

Explore the material. Talk through your reasoning with suitable support.

A Garden Changes

A school garden gives children several ways to learn. They count seeds before planting. They measure plants as they grow. They watch insects visit flowers. Children also write notes about what they observe. The garden is more than a place to grow food; it is a place to explore.

1. What is the passage mostly about?

2. Copy one detail that supports the main topic.
