

Plan and Improve a Short Story: Apply and Create

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Use what you learned to explain, construct or apply an idea.

1. Write an ending that solves or responds to the problem.

Look for:

- Responds to the story problem.

One possible response: The character gets help and retrieves the kite.

2. Add a sentence that shows how the character feels through an action.

Look for:

- Uses an action to communicate a feeling.

One possible response: The child grinned and held the kite tightly.

Open responses use criteria and an illustrative response. Other well-supported responses can be acceptable.
