

Plant Parts Have Jobs: Practice Independently

Name: _____ Date: _____

Use the material to work through each task. Show the requested response.

Parts of a familiar plant

Roots take up water and anchor a plant. The stem supports the plant and carries materials. Leaves use light to help make sugars. Many plants have flowers involved in reproduction.

1. Match each function to a plant part.

|                       |        |                                  |  |
|-----------------------|--------|----------------------------------|--|
| A. Takes up water     |        | B. Helps make sugars using light |  |
| C. Supports the plant |        |                                  |  |
| Roots                 | Leaves | Stem                             |  |
|                       |        |                                  |  |

2. Label roots, stem and leaves on the pictured familiar plant.

