

Understand Two Perspectives: Explore and Explain

Use the matching sheet ID when checking answers.

Explore the material. Talk through your reasoning with suitable support.

1. Describe the main problem in the situation.

Look for:

- Identifies the central situation rather than judging the person.

One possible response: Two pretend classmates design a poster. One wants large pictures; the other wants more words. Each wants the poster to be clear.

2. Name one possible feeling. What detail supports it?

Look for:

- Names a plausible feeling.
- Uses context; different reasonable feelings are acceptable.

One possible response: Both may feel invested or unheard.

Open responses use criteria and an illustrative response. Other well-supported responses can be acceptable.
